Prayer during the Coronavirus Pandemic

Lord we pray for all who are suffering and bereaved.
At this time of sorrow, incomprehension and tragedy, we stand together.
In this crisis, we pray for God's mercy and healing for the sick and for health and strength for all who care for them.
We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Keep us, good Lord, under the shadow of your mercy
in this time of uncertainty and distress.
Sustain and support the anxious and fearful, and lift up all who are brought low;
that we may rejoice in your comfort knowing that nothing can separate us from your love in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Lord, when people reject us we feel a lot of anger,
anger that keeps us in bondage,
holding us back like mud on our feet.
Help us, Lord, as we walk away, to shake the dust from under our feet, so that we may be free to give ourselves to others.

Lord, we pray for all those who work in teaching institutions.
Don't let us remain turned in on ourselves;
send us out as Jesus sent his disciples.

Lord, preserve us from rejecting the hand of friendship, lest we find one day that those we want to love have shaken the dust from under their feet as a sign to us.

"I have a great fear in my heart that one day, when they turn to loving, they will find we have turned to hating." ...A black priest in Alan Paton's book about South Africa, "Cry the Beloved Country"
